Recital

Upon execution of this Application and receipt of payment, the Virtual Egyptian Museum Project, an operating program of the California Institute of World Archaeology, hereby grants Applicant a nonexclusive royalty bearing license to reproduce certain Image(s) of VEM subject to all the terms and limitations set forth in this Agreement.

Reproduction

The permission and license granted herein is for the specific Publication described in this Application. Duplicates of photographic material provided by VEM may not be made for any other purpose. Applicant may only make analog or digital copies of the Images as absolutely necessary in intermediate process steps to the production of Publication. Once production is completed, all copies of the Images used for production must be destroyed or returned to VEM.

Single Printing

Unless otherwise indicated, permission for each Image is granted only for one usage in the Publication in one edition and in one language. Additional language editions, subsequent editions and other derivative works based on the Publication must be separately licensed. This license is valid for one year from the date of execution. Should printing of the Publication not be completed at that time, Applicant must seek a new license, having forfeited the original reproduction fees.

Alterations

Each Image must be reproduced exactly as it appears on VEM photography. Images may not be cropped, bled off the page, over printed, printed on colored stock, guttered across facing pages, or altered without prior written permission from VEM. When a detail Image is being used, the word "detail" must appear in the credit line.

Credits

All reproductions of VEM's Images in the Publication must be identified with the following credit on the same page as the Image(s), the opposite page, or the reverse page. If VEM's image(s) would be the only one(s) in the Publication giving credits in the location defined above, the credit line may be printed elsewhere in the publication. Failure to list proper credit line will result in a penalty fee of $400 per incident.

Samples

Applicant will supply VEM with one (1) gratis copies of the Publication no later than two (2) months after the date of publication.

Limits

VEM reserves the right to limit the number of VEM Images in a single publication if it appears that their number is disproportionate in relation to those from other sources.

Exclusivity and Assignment

The reproduction permission granted herein is limited to a nonexclusive reproduction license solely on the terms set forth herein. VEM retains all copyright ownership and all rights to exploit its copyrights where applicable. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved to VEM. No license or permission granted pursuant to this Application may be assigned by Applicant.

Miscellaneous

Applicant hereby agrees to indemnify and hold VEM harmless from and against any and all costs, claims, liabilities or damages incurred, including without limitation all attorney's fees expended as a result of any violation by Applicant of any copyright, publication rights or related interests relating to the Publication.

This application and any attached and cross referenced pages sets forth the entire agreement and supercedes all prior promises, representations, or statements of any kind, whether written or oral. This application may only be modified in writing. This application will be governed by the laws of the State of California without regard to its conflict of laws principles. All litigation arising under or relating to this Application will be filed and prosecuted in any court of competent subject matter jurisdiction in Santa Barbara, California. Applicant consents to the personal jurisdiction of such courts for such purpose.
